Code of Conduct and Workplace Behaviour Policy

Policy ID: HR-CONDUCT-001 Version: 1.0
Effective Date: 1 April 2026 Owner: People Operations
Classification: Internal — Employee Reference

Demo notice: This is a fictional company policy created for testing an HR RAG application. It is not a real company's policy or legal advice.

1. Professional Behaviour

Employees are expected to communicate respectfully, act honestly and maintain professional conduct with colleagues, customers and partners.

2. Conflict of Interest

Employees must disclose actual or potential conflicts, including outside activities or financial interests that could influence company decisions.

3. Gifts

Employees must not accept or offer cash or cash-equivalent gifts in connection with business decisions. Gifts that could create an obligation must be declined or disclosed.

4. Confidential Information

Confidential information includes customer data, source code, product plans, pricing, internal financial information and employee personal information.

5. Social Media

Employees must not disclose confidential information or imply that personal opinions are official company statements.

6. Non-Retaliation

XYZ prohibits retaliation against a person who raises a concern in good faith or participates in an investigation.

Policy governance

People Operations reviews policies periodically. The company may amend or replace policies. Where a more specific approved policy applies, that policy governs. Applicable law and the employee's employment agreement take precedence where required.
