Separation and Exit Policy

Policy ID: HR-EXIT-001 Version: 1.0
Effective Date: 1 April 2026 Owner: People Operations
Classification: Internal — Employee Reference

Demo notice: This is a fictional company policy created for testing an HR RAG application. It is not a real company's policy or legal advice.

1. Resignation

Employees should submit resignations through the official HR system. The notice period is the period stated in the employment agreement.

2. Knowledge Transfer

Employees must complete reasonable knowledge-transfer activities and document active work during notice.

3. Asset Return

Company laptops, access cards, tokens, documents and other assets must be returned by the final working day unless an approved exception exists.

4. Access Removal

IT will disable or modify access according to the approved separation schedule. Employees must not copy company data to personal accounts before departure.

5. Final Settlement

Final payroll and eligible reimbursements are processed according to company procedures and applicable requirements after required clearances.

6. Documents

Eligible employees receive separation documents after required exit formalities are completed.

Policy governance

People Operations reviews policies periodically. The company may amend or replace policies. Where a more specific approved policy applies, that policy governs. Applicable law and the employee's employment agreement take precedence where required.
